

CODE OF CONDUCT

Dear Delegate,

This document will inform you about the legal matters and rules pertaining to the Barcelona 2002, the 15th National Selection Conference of the European Youth Parliament España, which takes place from the 15th to the 19th April 2020 in Barcelona (Spain).

Filling out this form is obligatory for all participants. Respecting the Code of Conduct during the session is compulsory in order to guarantee a safe session. Thank you for your cooperation and understanding.

Please read the Code of Conduct carefully, print it and sign it. You must bring it printed on your arrival. This is a requirement in order to attend the session.

Commitment to integrity

- 1) Participants are obliged to behave in a way that does not reflect negatively on the EYP, the National Committee and other participants at the event.
- 2) Participants are obliged to behave in a way that does not reflect negatively on the Organising Committee, and should therefore respect all rules established by the organising team, including, but not limited to:
 - a) participating in all mandatory items of the programme in a timely manner;
 - b) respecting the venues where the event is taking place, and their respective rules;
 - c) not abandoning the group or premises of the event without explicit permission to do so;
 - d) behaving as a representative of the organisation at all stages of the event, even outside the official programme elements.

Behaviour and non-discrimination

- 3) Participants must behave respectfully towards other session participants. Expected behaviour includes:
 - a) maintaining a positive and welcoming environment for all participants;
 - b) not engaging in conduct that is unfair or abusive towards others;
 - c) respecting cultural, religious, and personal differences;
 - d) not discriminating any other participant on the basis of their age, sex, gender identity, sexual orientation, physical or mental disabilities, religion, national or ethnic origin, family status, marital status, or any other status.

- 4) Bullying or harassment of any kind – whether, verbal, non-verbal, physical aggression, sexual or emotional is not tolerated at any events connected with our organisation.

Sexual conduct and relationships

- 5) Session participants must respect national laws setting the age of sexual consent.
- 6) The EYP operates under a clear consent culture. Everything that is not a yes is a no.
- 7) Participants are expected to promote a safe environment free from sexual misconduct.
- 8) Session participants cannot engage in any romantic or intimate activity with people in a position of trust towards them. This rule applies in addition to the Policy on Safe and Dignified EYP and the Participant Welfare Policy

Alcohol consumption and drug abuse

- 9) The EYP respects national law and limits the use of alcohol and tobacco accordingly.
- 10) No Session participant should put themselves in a position in which they are unable to fulfil their duties or participate in the session programme due to overindulgence.
- 11) The consumption or use of any drugs is strictly forbidden at all EYP events.

Criminal conduct

- 12) Session participants are obliged to comply with the national law of the country where the event is taking place.

Duties and responsibilities

- 13) Any person who has agreed to chaperone a delegation is responsible for the well-being and good behaviour of said delegation during a session.
- 14) Every individual should intervene to stop an inappropriate behaviour when observed (be it bullying, harassment or other harmful or dangerous behaviour). Serious and grave incidents should be reported to the Safe Person in accordance with the procedure set out in the Policy for a Safe and Dignified EYP.
- 15) Every participant must confirm that they have read and understood the Code of Conduct, the Welfare Policy and the Policy for a Safe and Dignified EYP.

Consequences

- 16) Violation of this Code of Conduct will result in appropriate disciplinary action at the discretion of the Event Safe Person (in consultation with the session leadership and NC board) including, but not limited to:
 - a) reprimands;

- b) expulsion from the event at the participant's own expense (access to any of the program elements or venue is forbidden from then on);
 - c) mention of the behaviour in the participant's evaluation;
 - d) "Inability" to be selected for International Sessions or events organised with the support or involvement of the International Office/Governing Body for a certain amount of time;
 - e) legal action in case of unlawful behaviour;
 - f) indefinite expulsion from the national organisation, either temporary or permanent;
 - g) expulsion from all EYP events, both national and international, either temporary or permanent.
- 17) Complaints in case of serious breach of the policy can lead to further consequences being imposed by the Governing Body, following complaints submitted to the Safe Core Team.
